disturb the peace, quiet, comfort or serenity of the surrounding lots.

(9) Enforcement of Restrictions. In the event legal action shall be instituted by the declarant to enforce any of the provisions of these restrictions, then, in the event of successful conclusion of the legal action in favor of the declarant, the respondent shall be obligated to pay all legal expenses incurred by the declarant in the enforcement of these covenants.

This declaration shall run with the land and shall be binding on all parties claiming under the declarant for a period of twenty-five (25) years from the date of recordation, after which time the same shall be automatically extended for consecutive periods of ten (10) years each unless an instrument signed by a majority of the owners of the lots shall be recorded agreeing to change or terminate this declaration in whole or in part. This declaration may be enforced at law or in equity by the declarant, his heirs or successors, or by the owner of any lot. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or any part thereof shall in no way effect the remainder.

Declarant may appoint a successor by an instrument filed in the Guilford County Registry. Declarant reserves a right to waive, in whole or in part, any of the foregoing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the declarant has set hand and seal the day and year first above written.
