RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

OAKMONT ESTATES, INC., a North Carolina corporation, the owner in fee simple of the real property now subdivided and platted, the plat of which is recorded in Plat Book 37, Page 44, Randolph County, North Carolina, Registry, hereby makes the following declaration as to limitations, restrictions and uses to which all lots in said subdivision may be put, hereby specifying that said declaration shall constitute covenants to run with the lots in said subdivision and shall be binding on all parties, corporations, and all persons or firms claiming under them and for the benefit of limitations upon all future owners of lots in said subdivision, this declaration of restrictions being designated for the purpose of keeping said lots in said subdivision desirable, uniform and suitable in architectural design, and to insure the use of said lots for attractive residential purposes only, to prevent nuisances, to prevent the impairment of the attractiveness of the property, to maintain the desired tone of the community, and thereby to secure to each residential lot owner the full benefit and enjoyment of his home with no greater restriction upon the free and undisturbed use of his site than is necessary to insure the same advantages to the other site owners. Anything tending to detract from the attractiveness and value of the property for residence purposes will not be permitted.

The Protective Covenants are as set forth in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The above restrictions are placed on the property and lots hereinabove specified and set forth as a part of the general scheme or plan of development for the benefit of all owners of property hereinabove specified and said covenants are and shall be binding upon all present and future owners of said land, their successors, heirs and assigns, and shall be covenants running with the land, binding on all future owners of said property. These covenants may
