ROAD NAMING/RENAMING INFORMATION

As previously stated, Randolph County will only name or rename a road as a last resort and when public safety is involved.

VOLUNTARY PETITION

In the case of naming a new private road, a petition shall be submitted to the Randolph County Planning Department. The petition shall include the signature of everyone living along the road that wishes to have the street name changed. A minimum of fifty-one percent of the property owners along the street shall sign the petition requesting the road naming. In cases where a property has multiple owners and the property is being used to achieve the required percentage of owner signatures, each landowner's signature is required but only counts as one signature on the petition. By signing the petition, the owners state that they understand that their address could change and that they will voluntarily change their address.

All proposed road names shall follow the standards as outlined in the Randolph County Unified Development Ordinance, Article 600, Section 638, Subsections C and E.

INITIATED BY COUNTY OR STATE GOVERNMENT ACTIONS

In the event County or State government-sponsored or initiated action creates a situation that could be perceived to jeopardize the public's health, safety, or general welfare by impeding timely emergency response, a written request to change the street name shall be submitted to the Randolph County Planning Department.
